CROPS AND THE WEATHER.

The crop-weather bulletin prepared by the Oregon weather bureau for the week ending September 20th is as follows: The monotony of those long, warm, dry, dusty and smoky days has at last been broken by the few timely showers of the latter part of the week just closed. In this section the rains have been pretty general though light, except in a few of the southern counties, where over half an inch fell. In portions of southern Oregon fruit, vegetables and grapes have been benefited to some extent by these showers while pastures everywhere have been greatly improved. Another, and no less important effect of this precipitation, has been the extinguishing of the disastrous forest-fires that have been raging for so long, and a general clearing up of the dense smoke that has obscured the heavens so much of late. The temperature as well as the sunshine has been rather less than the average amount for this time of year, the deficiency in the latter being due mostly to a densely smoky atmosphere. In short the weather of the past week has been all that could be desired, and the farmers are contented. In the matter of crops what little corn yet remains in the ground has been improved some by the late showers. Hop-picking is now high over and reports point to a light crop. Fruit and tender vegetation have also received their full share of benefit from the precipitation of the past week. Gardens are doing better now than any time since last July. Fall plowing has at last been made possible in many sections and will soon begin. In Eastern Oregon the greater part of the week just closed has been attended by warm and dusty weather, but the latter part has seen considerable change, owing to a few light showers of rain in some sections which were greatly needed and have been duly appreciated by farmers in the favored districts. Elsewhere the conditions reported in last week's bulletin have continued throughout the week. During the early part of the week the temperature ran as high as a rule, but fell considerably towards the end of the seventh day period. The sunshine has been about or perhaps a trifle below the average. Crops: There are still a few counties where threshing is still in progress and being rapidly pushed to completion. It seems that grain generally is turning out a little better than expected. The first and second crops of hay in portions of Marion and Malheur counties have been very bountiful, better than in years past. Fruit has done well, but it is thought the cloudy weather and probable showers will yet retard it some this coming week. Very little fall plowing has been done so far, the ground being too dry and hard.

FAIR RECEIPTS LARGER.

W. H. Savage, the accommodating superintendent of the pavilion at the late fair, informs a JOURNAL reporter that the total receipts of the late fair were somewhat larger than those of 1891. This, certainly, is remarkable when it is remembered that last year the price of wheat was much higher than at present. Still the entries were more numerous in and out of the pavilion which adds greatly to the showing.

THE LECTURER.

The Eugene Daily Guard says of Dr. Sawtelle's lecture at Eugene: "The opera house was filled with the intelligent and fashionable of Eugene's femininity to hear Dr. Sawtelle's first lecture. The ladies listened with wrapt attention for over an hour and expressed themselves as being much pleased. Miss Sawtelle's song and her short talk on physical culture were very much enjoyed by the ladies."

GOOD FOR CHEMUKETA.

Chemuketa I. O. F. of this city, was awarded the second prize of $100 for representation in the Grand Odd Fellows procession in Portland this week. The generous conduct of this lodge in entertaining the Sovereign Grand lodge visitors in this city yesterday is worthy of all praise.

WILL VISIT THE SCHOOLS.

County School Superintendent Graham expects to soon start on his tour of visiting the schools throughout Marion county. He will not begin in the eastern end as there are a number of schools in that region that have not yet opened.

ENGAGED.

J. H. Douglass the photographic expert recently from Des Moines, has engaged for one year with the Salem Art company. Mr. Douglass is especially fine at retouching having been employed by some of the leading galleries in this country and Europe.

LIST OF JURYMEN.

Names of Those Who Are to be Jurymen at the Next Term.

The following thirty-one names were drawn today by the county clerk and sheriff as persons to serve as jurors during the coming October term of the circuit court. There are only two occupations represented by this number—farmer and mechanic—something unusual in a list comprising as many different names: S. Condit, farmer, Lincoln. Ed Hall, farmer, North Salem. Geo. H. Croisan, farmer, S. Salem. J. A. Tanner, farmer, Yew Park. John Boise, farmer, Salem. W. J. Polly, mechanic, E. Salem. L. J. Hollister, farmer, Stayton. Guyan Gibson, farmer, Lincoln. Wm. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Gussie Stelwer was a north-bound passenger this morning. R. A. Jones, of the Molalla country, was in Salem this forenoon. V. B. DeLashm returned to his home in Portland this morning. Miss Helen E. West went to Portland on the 7:30 train this morning. John Albert is in Portland this afternoon. Wm. Clarke, the giant of the Sanction county, is in Salem today. M. G. Jones, of near Wheatland, was in this city this a. m. Mrs. J. V. Taylor, the florist, was a passenger south yesterday on the 11:17 train. W. A. Campbell, who represents the Northwestern Life of Milwaukee is a recent comer to our city and is rapidly making friends for his company. In Lane county there are 267,000 acres of surveyed land and 1,394,300 acres of unsurveyed land, according to the records at the Roseburg land office. Mrs. Belle W. Cooke went to Forest Grove today where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. Chandler, and remain until after the meeting of the Congregational association which convenes there during next week. Ray Gilbert, now of La Grande, has been visiting his parents Postmaster and Mrs. A. N. Gilbert in this city for a few days. Today he started on his return home reaching there tomorrow. Miss Mary Casper and Mrs. Beal, of Rockford, Illinois, are in the city guests at the residence of A. T. and Mrs. Gilbert at Marion and Water streets. Miss Casper was one of the clerks in Gilbert Bros' bank about two years ago, and is here now on an overdue of a visit. Headaches, biliousness, and liver troubles are promptly cured by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Equally safe for young and old. An advertisement of Johnson & Sons appeared in these columns last evening as Johnson & Louis. It is needless to say that this was a gross typographical error, but the firm is so well known that every resident of Salem knew who it meant. In fact, when low prices in clothing are spoken of this firm is always called to mind. The United States fish commission's car No. 2, has arrived at Pendleton. It contains in the twenty transportation tanks some 2500 black bass of fair size, obtained at Quincy, Ill. from the overflow of the Mississippi. About 200 bass were put off at Boise, and most of the remainder will be placed in Liberty, Loon and Deer lakes, Washington. A few will be liberated in ponds near Dayton. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, highly concentrated, is the most economical blood purifier that can be used. D'Arcy & Bingham, attorneys, are today moving into their new office rooms in the D'Arcy block on State street, near High. Oysters at C. W. Hellenbrand's restaurant. See our $1.50 ladies' dongola shoes—beats them all at Krause Bros. Hellenbrand's meals are as usual—the best. TEA.—Don't forget that the Blue Front gives 10 to 25 cents per pound better value than any store in Salem. 1-t Standard.—The October fashion sheets free at the Palace. Mr. Lander's Recommendation. Mr. J. A. Lander, a prominent citizen of Clatsburg, Mo., and widely known in that state, says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy: "I have seen its good results and can recommend it." For sale by Baskett & Van Slype Drug lists.

THE SCHOOL FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

Kindergarten, hall at the corner of Court and Liberty streets, presents a pleasing and lively appearance nowadays as the school lately opened by Miss Orville Ballou, contains nearly three times the number of little folks that are generally in attendance at this time of year. Miss Ballou is now entering on the third year's work of this institution and has five assistants in the persons of Misses Mary Parmenter, Rose Dickinson, Emma Byrne, Clara Litchfield, and Gussie Giesy, all residents of Salem, and young ladies well fitted for this important work. The connecting class work will be commenced next Monday, and is a new departure in the work.

WANTED A REPUTATION.

A Cornellian has this to say of one of its agricultural college boys: One of the boys who came here the other day to attend the college displayed his grit and foolhardiness last Sunday by crossing the river on the ferry trolley-wire, which is suspended forty feet above the water. He will probably be idolized now by his schoolmates as a hero, but he was taking desperate chances in accomplishing the feat.

STILL IN YAMHILL.

According to the Reporter, Mrs. M. B. Woodworth, the evangelist, is yet at McMinnville. It says: "The Woodworth tent meetings are being continued through the week. One convert is reported and a number reclaimed." They find McMinnville a hard town to evangelize.

TO NEW YORK CITY.

Miss Myra Albert left today on the 1:40 train for Portland, accompanied by her father, John Albert. From that city she goes to New York City where she will resume her studies in the art class of the New York Art league, to remain a year. The members of the Avenue tennis club tendered her a surprise party last evening at the home of her parents on Winter and Oak streets. A most pleasant time was had, and a number of friends were at the depot to bid her farewell. Miss Albert is an accomplished artist of Salem, and will be among the highest in her class.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

A teamster named O. Nelson was fined $20 by the police court for cruelty to animals yesterday for cruelty to animals says the Oregonian. The case was an aggravated one, as Nelson belabored his poor over-burdened beast until it nearly fell to the ground. Most of the drivers and teamsters in the city are in sympathy with the work of the Oregon Humane Society through whose efforts much is being done to suppress cruelty to animals. Many of the teamsters are members of the society.

NOT A VAGRANT.

John Watt was before the recorder this morning to answer to the charge of vagrancy. He was discharged after his case had been looked into.

Nervous Prostration, is prevalent, especially among women, results from overtaxing the system. The assimilative organs becoming deranged, the blood grows weak and impoverished, and hence "that tired feeling" of which many complain. For all such cases, there is no remedy equal to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Take no other.

"Some time ago I found my system entirely run down. I had a feeling of constant fatigue and languor and very little ambition for any kind of effort. A friend advised me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did with the best results. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used."—Frank Mollows, Chelsea, Mass.

"For months I was afflicted with nervous prostration, weakness, languor, general debility, and mental depression. By purifying the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I was completely cured."—Mrs. Mary Stevens, Lowell, Mass.

When troubled with Dizziness, Sleeplessness, or Bad Dreams, take

MISS STRAHAN'S DEATH.

The Atlanta Constitution of Sept. 12th, gives the following account of Miss Fannie Strahan's death, a lady well known in Salem. At about half past 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon Miss Fannie Hereford Strahan died suddenly at the home of her mother Mrs. Judge Strahan, on Alexander street. The news of this death will bring sorrow to many friends of this charming young lady and of the family. Miss Strahan was a daughter of ex-Justice Strahan, of the Oregon supreme bench. She was a bright, talented young lady and an exquisite musician and an ardent student. For six years she was a student at the Boston conservatory of music and it was there that her health gave way. She went back to her home at Albany, Oregon, but her health did not improve and not long ago she came to Atlanta in the hope that this climate might build up her system. Here and at New Holland she improved and grew stronger and was believed to be on the high road to recovery; but yesterday she grew worse and died suddenly. At 3 o'clock today the funeral will take place from the family home 63 Alexander street. Interment at Westview.

THE WOMAN'S LECTURE.

Ladies don't miss the opportunity of hearing Mrs. Dr. Sawtelle's free lecture on "Artistic Dress and Perfect Health for Women" at the Baptist church tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. Dr. Sawtelle is an enthusiast on the subject of better conditions for women. Her lectures are original and replete with the most beautiful and valuable truths. On Saturday afternoon this gifted speaker will lecture on "Woman's health, beauty and longevity" and young women and teachers are especially requested to attend and bring their note books. A beautiful oil painting will be given away on Saturday. Dr. Sawtelle is stopping at the Rely or (Lee) boarding house where she will see friends and patients.

MORE MARRIAGES.

Geo. Gilmore, aged 43, and Mollie Miller aged 28; and W. F. Feller and Miss A. L. Feller were granted licenses to wed today. Jas. P. Feller a brother of the last named groom was a witness for him. The bride, prior to the marriage, was not a relative of her present husband. This makes twenty-two licenses issued so far during this month.

REPAIRS BEING MADE.

All but three of the several pieces for the repairs to the big new pump of the Salem Water Co., that was disabled during last week, have arrived from San Francisco and Oswego, and workmen are now putting them in place, and soon the pump will be better than new.

"Tired All the Time."

Is the complaint of many poor mortals, who know not where to find relief. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses just those elements of strength which you so earnestly crave, it will build you up, give you an appetite, strengthen your stomach and nerves. Try it.

Hood's Pills act especially upon the liver, rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

MARRIED.

In Salem, on Wednesday, September 21, 1892, at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. Robt. Whittaker, J. L. Mitchell and Anna Schott.

The wedding ceremony was performed at 8 p. m. in the presence of only a few relatives. The groom is well known in Salem and Marion county, at one time being secretary of the board of trade, and is now senior partner in the live insurance firm of J. L. Mitchell & Company in this city. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Schott, of near Sublimity, Marion county. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell is 258 Chemeketa street, and they have already begun housekeeping "all alone by themselves."
